Not At All, At All

LOOKING 'EM OVER

BY LOUIS A. DOUGHER

All aboard for Georgetown Field! Beginning at 3 o'clock a football battle to rank with the best of the past will get under way, the Virginia Polytechnic doing its best to down the young hopefuls under command of "Wamba" McQuade. The Blackburg boys have come to town confident of their ability. All they ask is an even break. If they lose, they will not drop their heads. If they win, they will not require extraneous praise. But down in their hearts, they really believe they have a chance, all other things equal, to upset the fast-moving Hilltoppers.

Georgetown's varsity eleven has disappointed Coach Exendine by its poor performance ever since the West Virginia Wesleyan game a week ago. In the big weekly scrimmage, not only did the varsity fail to execute its own plays, but it also failed to carry out the old ones to the satisfaction of the lynx-eyed coach. Of course, poor practice sometimes makes for a fine game, but it certainly is not encouraging to a coach.

Tech brings to the Hilltop today a big, fast, experienced football eleven considered quite capable of standing up before the bewildering stack of a Georgetown team. From tackle to tackle, Tech shows big, but not bulky, players. The backfield is quite the strongest eleven V. P. I. has possessed in ten years, to go back so far.

"Polly" Hall, who will start today at left tackle, rises up into the air to a height of six feet three inches, yet he weighs only 192 pounds. No excess baggage there. Hall's career during the past two years has been unique. Becoming an aviator in the A. E. F., he had the unpleasant experience of becoming captured by the famous "Richfence Circus" near Metz. During the combat, Hall was wounded slightly in one leg and then imprisoned for fourteen weeks in a field. His term ended on November 11, 1918. They are due to begin once more at 3 o'clock today.

Indian Playing Tackle. An honest-to-goodness Indian is playing the tackle for Tech today. He is Ted Tilton. He is a little chap, weighing 185 pounds and standing six feet two inches in height.

The two guards are also big enough to take care of themselves. At left guard is "Dusty" Armstrong and on the other side "Big" Shaner, no relation to the famous "Big" Shaner of the cartoon. Armstrong and Shaner are playing their first year with V. P. I., but both have played football before now. Armstrong played a lot of football over seas. He weighs 180 pounds, five pounds more than Shaner. Each man stands five feet ten inches in height. George Parker, who has been playing center is not expected to play today. He is experienced at both tackle and center and his absence may be felt, according to V. P. I. followers. He bruised his shoulder at Richmond last Saturday. H. Hardwick, brother of the Tech captain, will probably start the game against Georgetown.

Only Two Here Here. After today's battle with V. P. I., Georgetown will play only two more games at home, Delaware coming to the Hilltop on November 1 and Washington and Lee on November 22. On November 8 the Blue and Gray will battle the Navy at Annapolis, which is near enough to permit of its supporters journeying over for the contest.

Next Saturday Georgetown will be in Detroit, meeting the big Detroit University eleven at Navin Field. Some of the Detroit Tigers during the summer. On November 18 Georgetown will battle Georgia Tech at Atlanta and on November 29, the Saturday following Thanksgiving, the Hilltoppers will be mingling with

LOADMAN GAINS VICTORY; JOE SCHWARTZ CAN PUNCH

BALTIMORE, Oct. 18.—Local fight fans discovered two things at Albaugh's theater last night. The first was that Dick Loadman and Frankie Brown have no license to claim ability to meet either Benny Valzer or Johnny Kilbane. The second was that Joe Schwartz, a Washington heavyweight, a terrific hitter, has started on the road to stifle fame. Loadman and Brown battled earnestly through twelve rounds, the former gaining a well-earned decision. Brown's blows lacked weight while Loadman had little left but his willingness to mix. Schwartz was carded to go four rounds with Kid Richmond. The bout just did last the limit, the Washingtonian making a punching bag out of his opponent.

MAY GET A CHANCE.

As soon as his wounded ankle is strong, Jack Flynn will get his chance to direct the variety eleven at the Hilltop. He puts a lot of snap into his work and, in addition, is a flying grasshopper carrying the ball.

EASTERN SCORES ON TECH'S LADS

Eastern High players, after taking a royal beating for something like thirty-nine minutes with Tech, in the opener of the high school championship football series, simply wouldn't quit.

The Capitol Hill lads were outclassed, outwitted, and outshone by the Tech lads, who gathered in 53 points. Then Eastern got a lucky break, and actually punched a hole right through Tech's beefy forwards for a touchdown.

Prender was the lad who starred for Eastern. Helped by McQuade he shot right through Tech's big line-men and by secondary for Eastern's touchdown. It was a merry day for Eastern, even on defeat. Tech greatly outweighed the Easterners all through. There was a disparity of something like fifteen pounds to the man in most cases. Tech was better drilled and more dependable on attack.

Added to this Tech lads, driven by Captain Wardwellers ever at it with a punch the seldom failed to gain the necessary distance. But above all the plucky Easterners failed to quit.

Ed Pugh had scored four touchdowns, Parker had tallied three, and Prober got three more. Wardwell had kicked five goals, and the score was 53 to 13.

Referee Batterby notified the teams that two minutes remained to play. Then Brown, of Eastern, grabbed a forward pass from Pugh, of Tech, and raced thirty yards before he was forced out of bounds. Two line plays netted five yards, and then Prender, warmed, his way right through the whole Tech team for a touchdown.

Tech's team showed to advantage almost without suitable opposition. Eastern's eleven is unusual green, but was willing to mix at all times. There was never a let up in the play of the Easterners, even in the face of all sorts of fumbles and ragged work.

The big Tech players might have tallied a larger score had not a string of reserves been sent in to get a workout. It would appear that the Manual Trainers have a first rate eleven in the making, and one that will prove a most worthy opponent for Central next week.

VERNON WINS TITLE.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 18.—Vernon won the Western Union baseball championship here yesterday, defeating St. Paul, the American Association titleholder, 2 to 1, in the deciding game of the series. "Whizzer" Bell, formerly of Brooklyn, held the Saints to four hits.

CLEMON STOPPED IT.

The little Clemson eleven smeared Georgia Tech's famous shift play every time it was started last Saturday. Pittsburgh will do likewise next Saturday.

GUARANTEES PIPERS.

"Scotty" Fitzgerald, who takes care of the Central stadium, wants to get his Scotch bagpipe band out for Tech-Central game Friday. "There'll be something doing then," says "Pitz."

Pugh Boys Play In Different Games.

There are three Pugh boys playing football in the high schools at present. Ed Pugh is playing fullback for Tech and is laid up just at present. Michael Patrick O'Connor Timothy Aloisius Pugh, the oldest and likeliest of the Pugh family, is playing with the Western team. According to the Pugh lads there is little said at home relative to the merits of the two scholastic teams.

COLGATE REIGNS FAVORITE TO WIN

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Cornell's rosters were glum today as they turned out for the gridiron clash between the Ithacans and Colgate. Injuries will keep H. F. Davies, one of Cornell's stars, out of the battle. Colgate will go into the game a 10-to-0 favorite to win. The teams probably will line up as follows:

HARVARD'S HUGE FORWARDS EXPECTED TO BEAT BROWN

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 18.—Harvard probably will rely upon her heavy line to stay the rushes of the Brown team when the two colleges clash this afternoon in the first major game of the football season here. Brown is expected to use open-gate tactics.

Humphrey will play the defensive back for the Crimson, while much in the line of the game is expected of Casey's running qualities. Ralph Horween will play fullback and will do most of the punting.

GARRY HERRMANN TO KEEP ALL HIS WORLD'S CHAMPS

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Garry Herrmann has reserved all of his championship players for the Reds of 1920, according to the list of National League reservations made public by President John Heydler.

The Giants reserved 35: Brooklyn, 30; Chicago, 25; Philadelphia, 27; St. Louis, 37; Boston, 30, and Pittsburgh, 21, not including Manager Hugo Bezdek.

HEAPHY A SPARKER.

Jack Heaphy, center on Georgetown's eleven two years ago, has become an orator. He addressed a mass meeting of Boston college student Thursday, assuring them that St. C. would make a great fight at New Haven today and night with Heaphy is now center on the Boston college eleven.

GEORGE IS HUSTLING.

Finding himself relegated to the second eleven, Captain George, of the Army team, is making a valiant effort to regain his berth on the varsity. However, he is still a second string captain.

MAY PUT OUT TEAM.

War Risk Insurance plans to have a basketball league, and a representative team during the winter.

PLAYS STATE ELEVEN.

Virginia Polytechnic Institute, at the Hilltop today, plays Maryland State College at College Park Saturday next.

OLD RIVALS PLAY.

Central and Episcopal play today at Alexandria. The teams are old rivals. Central won the last engagement by 6 and 2.

SYRACUSE HOPING TO TRIM PANTHERS

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Coach "Bucky" O'Neill's Orange eleven believes it has a chance to win its first game from Pittsburgh today. A warm sun has dried the gridiron at Archbold Stadium and the outlook is for fully 15,000 fans to see the contest. In 1919 Pitt won 30 to 0. In 1917 the Panthers again won, 23 to 0. Last year they did not meet. This year, however, Syracuse hopes to turn the tables.

Syracuse will slightly outweigh Pitt, 176 to 175 for the whole eleven, and 152 to 150 in the line. Behind the line, though, the Pittsburgh quartet averages 198 pounds to 164 for Syracuse.

STATE TEAM READY FOR MOUNTAINEERS

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Oct. 18.—Maryland State's football team makes no predictions on today's contest with the West Virginia Wesleyan eleven. State's victory over Virginia last Saturday is an indication that the team is going well enough to give the Mountaineers a stiff engagement.

Rodgers, Hager, Ice and the full quota of West Virginians will be used against the visitors. While West Virginia was decisively beaten by Pitt last Saturday, the team is expected to come strong in today's game.

CROSS-COUNTRY LADS UNDER WAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The various colleges of the East have announced their schedule of dual cross-country races to put the respective squads in shape for the annual intercollegiate championship which takes place over the six-mile Van Cortlandt Park course on November 22. Syracuse University is to aid the Eastern colleges in preparing their athletes with an open four-mile race over its Syracuse course on October 25.

Other runs scheduled are: November 1, Yale vs. Princeton, over the latter course; Cornell at Harvard, Pennsylvania at Dartmouth; November 8, Harvard at Yale, Princeton at Cornell, Columbia, Dartmouth and Pennsylvania at Van Cortlandt Park; November 15, Princeton at Harvard, Dartmouth at Yale, Pennsylvania at Cornell.

BOMBARDIER WELLS WINS; FULTON TO MEET GODDARD

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Bombardier Wells knocked out the English heavyweight Curphey in the second round of a scheduled twenty-round bout at the Holborn stadium here last night. Curphey was clearly outclassed.

PROMOTER COCHRANE, WHO STAGED THE MATCH, ANNOUNCED BEFORE THE FIGHT THAT HE HAD MATCHED FULTON, THE AMERICAN HEAVYWEIGHT, AND JOE GODDARD FOR A BOUT NOVEMBER 7.

Joe Beckett, the English champion, appeared in the ring and announced that he was ready to meet Jack Dempsey.

MEETS V. M. I. TEAM.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Oct. 18.—Virginia Military Institute football players are here today ready to tackle the University of Virginia eleven. The cadets are expected to prove formidable, and have a number of forward pass plays which may bother Virginia.

HAVE NO CONTEST.

Georgetown Preps have no contest for today. They will spend up in another week with games with high schools here.

HAS SQUAD OUT.

Bill Foley at Central has a hundred track candidates working out every day.

High School Players go on Strike

DETROIT, Oct. 18.—Twenty members of the Central high football team have gone on strike.

Players demand the immediate resignation of their present coach, Fred Blackstone, who, they declare, lacks the necessary experience and personality.

Only two players are "disloyal" to the "cause" of the insurgents.

"We cannot uphold the high standard of Central if we are not allowed a new coach," said Captain Ecklund, and a dozen others shouted approval. "We are following what we think is the right course and we will not be thwarted by threats."

REX CLUB ELEVEN TO MEET MARINES

Followers of independent football will see the biggest game of the year here tomorrow at Union Park at 3:30 o'clock, when the Quantico Marines play the Rex Athletic Club.

Tuesday the Marines defeated Catholic University by 7 to 0. The Quantico men presented a husky eleven which was somewhat handicapped by heavy going.

Tomorrow Rex will have Johnny Elser and Harry Harris in the backfield to Joe Glebel, Bunny Cranston and Harry Eckendorf.

WILL NUMBER COLUMBIA'S PLAYERS IN TODAY'S GAME

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The Columbia eleven will be numbered in the game against Williams today, and in the remaining games on the schedule. Fred Dawson, head of the coaching staff, approved of the plan and numbers are being prepared.

This news was greeted with expressions of great satisfaction by the student body and the followers of the team in general. In 1917 the players were numbered after a great deal of newspaper agitation for the movement and great satisfaction resulted.

YALE EXPECTS HARD GAME TODAY WITH CAVY'S TEAM

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 18.—Yale doesn't figure on running up much of a score today against Frank Cavanaugh's Boston College eleven. Indeed, the Elis admit that Cavy's team may prove a tough customer. Last week fumbling kept B. C. from endangering Harvard's goal line, but this weakness may not be seen today. The Bay Staters are heavy confident of holding Yale to a small score, if not victorious themselves.

HAMILTON SEES GAME.

Major George Hamilton, U. S. Marine, who received a flock of decorations during the war, visited the Central-Eastern game yesterday. Major Hamilton was a former star athlete in football and track at Central.

MOHAWKS WILL PLAY.

The Mohawk A. C. team has arranged to play the Quinton A. C. eleven tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Seventeenth and D streets southeast.

A. N. PREPS AWAY.

Army and Navy Preps are away at the Tome School today.

WILL STAGE FINAL IN GOLF TOURNEY

Play in the semi-final and ultimate rounds is on the card today at Columbia Country Club in the annual invitation fall tournament. Speculation is rife as to the finalists. In the upper bracket George H. Chasmer, of Columbia, medalist in Thursday's play, meets S. Newton, the Richmond player.

In the lower half Walter R. Tucker, Chasmer, Chase creek, is pitted against Marshall Whitlock, the Columbia player, record holder and District champion. This match drew out a large gallery in the morning.

Chasmer gained his way by defeating Edward Strick and Tom Moore. Newton got up by defeating George James and Allan Lard, the last match going twenty-six holes before a decision was reached.

Tuckerman defeated Morven Thomson and Walter McCallum. Whitlock struck a tartar in Ashmead Fuller but won and then defeated Donald Woodward by 5 and 4.

A. R. MacKenzie, Robinson White, Judge Peck, of Richmond, and E. A. Brooke are the semi-finalists in the second sixteen. Lowman, Cunningham, Brawnner, and Ashbury are the players competing in the third sixteen for honors.

TEBEAU TO LEAD DENVER OUTFIT

DENVER, Oct. 18.—Denver will be back in the Western League in 1920. Two weeks ago the deal was closed by George Tabeau with President Tierney, who has received the favorable vote of every member of his league. It is almost certain now that it will be the Lincoln club franchise which will come to Denver.

George Tabeau was in Denver ten days ago and made arrangements for vast improvements at Broadway Park. At that time nothing was given out because of a peculiar situation existing in regard to the Lincoln franchise. Lincoln was about the only club in the Western League that didn't pay last year.

Tabeau is one of the oldest and most capable managers in the game. He knows the sport from every angle. He played professional ball in the '90s later managed a club, and up until a couple of years ago owned the Kansas City Blues in the American Association. Tabeau with his brother, the famous Pat Tabeau, was a member of the Cleveland Indians.

FRES MAY RETURN.

Freddy Fess, last year's captain of the Georgetown University basketball team, is taking post graduate work at the Hilltop and may come out to the team this winter. He has another year of competition as he has played but three years.

FIGHT OUT TO TIE.

St. Albans and Business fought out to a 6 to 6 tie yesterday on Satterfield. Crowley tallied for the Cathedral lads in the second quarter and Somerville scored for Business in the third quarter.
